Erdem Şimşek and Erkan Oğur on stage at Borusan

ISTANBUL
CONCERT

Borusan Music House is bringing back the fretless guitar virtuoso, Erkan Oğur, a second time this season as a guest artist at a bağlama (a Turkish fretted folk instrument with three double strings) concert. A prominent bağlama player of the younger generation, Erdem Şimşek, will play a repertoire of his own music alongside the traditional Anatolian tunes on different members of the bağlama family, including the cura, bağlama, tanbura and divan sazı. The second part of the concert will feature Oğur in a duet with Şimşek that will take the audience on a magical journey in the musical realm of bağlama. Tickets cost 5 to 10 Liras.
