

Enka Oditorium

Anjelika Akbar / Saturday / 7:30 p.m.

Anjelika Akbar was born Anjelika Rosenbaum in 1969 in Karaganda, Kazakhstan. She began playing piano at the age of three and was writing songs and performing onstage when she was five. She is the only child of a Jewish musician and philosopher father and a Turkish musician mother. Anjelika studied for 11 years at Tashkent's National Uspensky Music School, became a Turkish citizen in 1993 and received her master's degree from the Hacettepe National Conservatory in Ankara. She was an instructor at the State Conservatory at Ankara University from 1997-1999. Since coming to Turkey she has given concerts in Central Asia, the Baltic States, Russia, India, Germany and Turkey, and she was invited to the UNESCO National Committee for Uzbekistan.

Price: YTL 34 Tel: 0212 276 2214